

Cyberbullying

Answers

2. Are the following statements true or false?

	True	False
The Children's Commissioner for Wales thinks that we must resort to the law in order to tackle the problem of cyberbullying.	✓
Keith Towler believes that there is no point in children empowering themselves to deal with cyberbullies as it is the responsibility of schools and parents.		✓
Olivia Edwards thinks that there is nothing that young people can do to prevent cyberbullying.		✓
Ysgol y Cymer uses people who have experienced cyberbullying to help others.	✓
Keith Towler believes that social networking sites should be regulated.	✓

4. What is the meaning of the word 'specific' as used in the following sentence? 'Under UK legislation there is not a specific law which makes cyberbullying illegal, although it can be considered a criminal offence...'

- a. general ☐
- b. particular ☒
- c. indefinite ☐
- d. strong ☐